Residence Cottage Guidebook

HOUSING

Linn State Technical College currently has campus cottages, which provide housing for students. All cottages have two separate wings. Each wing consists of four rooms, for a total of eight rooms per cottage. Usually, two students who share that space occupy each room. Single rooms are available to students at a premium price, based upon availability. Each room consists of two bunkable beds, two desks, two chairs, closet space, dresser(s), under bed storage, a micro fridge, and a bathroom. Students have limited control over their ground source heat pump for climate control. Local phone, Internet access, electricity, trash, digital cable, and water are all included in the housing rate. A Resident Assistant, who is typically an upper-class student, supervises the cottage's activities. There is also a Commons building where the Resident Manager lives. The Commons includes a game room, a TV lounge, laundry facilities, resident mailboxes, and a full service kitchen. For students who are unable to obtain a room on-campus, or who choose not to live there, information is maintained on housing within the community of Linn and the surrounding area. The college provides students with a current list of vacancies; this list is available from Student Services. The college does not approve or disapprove individual student housing, but will supply information concerning current housing vacancies.

Only students enrolled, in good standing, at Linn State Technical College (LSTC), living as single* individuals, may reside in the on-campus residential cottages.

 Housing for married couples, couples, and/or families are available in the surrounding community. A list of off-campus housing is available from Student Services.

Each student will provide their local address to the college and will have the responsibility of informing the college of any change that is made in housing.

Before moving on-campus, verification of immunization including TB screening is mandatory. Residents are to present evidence of having immunization for meningococcal disease (meningitis), or a statement of medical exemption, signed by a physician, on file with the college. You must submit the Immunization Record to the Admissions office prior to moving on-campus.

Check Out Process

If for any reason you are no longer going to live on-campus (ex. removed from housing, check out mid-semester, leave due to grades, leave for personal reasons, graduate, transfer schools, etc.) You MUST check out with the Resident Manager. You must be present for check out and turn in your keys. Failure to do so will result in a forfeit of deposit for improper check out. If keys are not returned an additional charge for re-coring will be applied. So, if you decide to leave and not check out and take your keys with you, you will be charged $285.00 plus charges for cleaning/damages; if you leave your keys in your room but do not check out, you will forfeit deposit plus charges for damages/cleaning. These charges are in addition to penalties for breaking the housing agreement and any damages/cleaning. Please refer to your terms of agreement for terms of the housing agreement.

Rules and Regulations

Academic Environment

College housing makes a commitment to students to support their academic success. Paramount to this concept is the enforcement of "Study/Quiet Hours" and "Rights of Others." It is the responsibility of each resident along with the college housing staff, to enforce these policies.

Rights of Others

At all times, residents should consider the rights of others; therefore, in a considerate environment, a community member can expect the following:

1. The right to be able to study or sleep without undue disturbance or noise supersedes all other rights.
2. The right to expect others to refrain from distracting behaviors in the hallways (such as, but not limited to: football, broom hockey, water fights, hacky sack, pranks, Frisbee, bouncing balls, etc.).
3. The right to expect others to refrain from shouting in the hallways, lounges, and public areas, or slamming of doors.
4. The right to expect additional stipulations on quiet hours during finals or midterm week.
5. The right to tactfully confront the inappropriate behavior of fellow students without negative repercussion.

The Commons is a designated area that typically is tolerant of a noisy, playful atmosphere. Students are to use this area for game playing, group talking etc., thus not disturbing the cottage community.

Study/Quiet Hours

Given the living and learning atmosphere established for our housing communities, study/quiet hours are times when NO NOISE should be heard in the hallways or by your neighbors.

During Finals week each semester, there will be extended quiet hours. Signs will be posted throughout the cottages.

Study/Quiet hours are in effect beginning at 9:00 p.m. and are in effect until 8:00 a.m. Sunday-Thursday and midnight-10:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday. Individual residents, along with the college housing staff, are responsible for the enforcement of study/quiet hours. Violations of study/quiet hours will be handled through the discipline process.

Courtesy Hours

Courtesy Hours are in effect 24 hours a day. If a student has asked for a lowering of a noise even though it's not during "study/quiet hours", the residents are to be courteous to each other and lower the noise.

Noise Policy

Noise should not be heard in another student's room. We define noise as conversations that can be heard distinctly in another student's room. Any type of loud noise or music that can be heard in another student's room or by your neighbors is also considered noise. All have the responsibility to be considerate of others and to appropriately confront others. Tips: Use earphones, turn down the volume or turn the music or TV off.

+ Survival Tip to Raise your Grades: If you really need to establish a good habit; join a study group or start one. Meet in the Library or in the Commons on a scheduled basis. You may also choose to use the Academic Resource Center.

Alcohol and Drugs

The residential cottages and surrounding grounds are a part of the LSTC campus, and as such, individuals residing or visiting there are governed by the laws of the state of Missouri, the rules and regulations of LSTC, as well as all federal and local laws. Residential cottages follow the laws of the state of Missouri and prohibit the possession, sale, use, consumption (or exchange) of alcohol and of illegal drugs.

Drinking or possession of alcoholic beverages by anyone is prohibited. Alcoholic beverages found by staff members will be confiscated and disposed of promptly. Individuals found in violation of the alcohol policy are subject to disciplinary action.

Residents may not manufacture (or grow) illegal drugs or distill alcohol on state property or be found to have such in his/her possession, in his/her room, or in his/her bodily fluids (as tested by blood and urine samples). The college prohibits the use or possession of narcotic/addictive drugs or controlled substances and paraphernalia.

Violations of the alcohol and drug policy can lead to dismissal from LSTC and the residential community.

Bicycles and Motorcycles

For safety reasons, ATV's, mo-peds, golf carts, go carts, skateboards, motorbikes, minibikes, pit bikes, and non-licensed motorcycles are not to be used in the residence cottages or on college owned property. Bicycles and roller blades and skates may be ridden on-campus but not in the residential cottages. A bike rack is provided outside by the Commons. Bicycles can only be stored in the room with agreement by the roommate or at the bike rack at the Commons. Bicycles may not be stored on the patios or outside anywhere other than the bike rack. Nothing may be stored in the hallways or the maintenance closets. All personal belongings must be stored in the student's room or on the bike racks. Housing cannot be responsible for lost or stolen bicycles.

Candles/Incense/Votives/Oil lamps

Students are NOT to burn candles, incense, votives, or oil lamps in their rooms.

Cohabitation

Only students assigned to a room are allowed to live there and keep their belongings in that room. The presence of someone else's clothing, toiletries, etc. can be interpreted as cohabitation and is subject to disciplinary action. Those who violate the policy are subject to disciplinary action and/or back billing for additional occupants. If you have a roommate; then you and your roommate share the room. Residents may not have non-residents of that room sleep over. This includes family members, boyfriends or girlfriends, or any other visitors -whether of the same or opposite sex.

These are college dormitory spaces; not your private homes. You may not have sleepovers or overnight guests. VIOLATIONS CAN LEAD TO REMOVAL FROM THE RESIDENTIAL COMMUNITY!

Guests

Persons who are civil and who abide by the smoke free, alcohol and drug policies may visit. Usually friends or family members visit. All guests must register at the front desk in the Commons. Residents are responsible for their guests. Unless your roommate agrees to have your friends and family in their space; you should meet your visitors in the Commons, or (weather permitting) outside on the walkways or grounds, or in the cafeteria. Good manners should prevail in the timing of visits. Please consider your roommate's wishes and feelings. Please do not have visitors before 8 a.m. or after 10 p.m. without consulting the Resident Manager. Please have your guests park in the designated visitors lot.

Guidelines governing guests include:

1. The host is responsible for the behavior of all guests at all times. Therefore, the host should review the residence hall policies with the guest. The host will assume any penalties incurred by the guest.
2. Students from other cottages are considered to be guests.
3. Guests should be accompanied by the host at all times, and therefore, should not possess the room key.
4. Guests are subject to disciplinary action and removal if their behavior violates policy.
5. Conduct in public areas should be conducive to all aspects of the community environment. Students and/or guests are not allowed to stay overnight in the lounges.

Room and Bathroom Cleaning

Cleaning of your room/bathroom is the equal responsibility of all persons living in the room. Rooms may be inspected without prior notice to make sure safety issues of room cleanliness are being upheld such as fire codes and health codes. Failure to meet these requirements in cleanliness can lead to disciplinary actions and removal from the housing system.

Decorating the Room

Please check with the maintenance staff before attempting to hang pictures, planters, etc. or to put up posters. The staff will recommend what to use and what may cause damage. Any holes, determined by an inspection, to be excessive will be billed to you (upon their repair) and subtracted from your damages deposit.

Collection of Cans/Bottles

For health reasons, any collection of cans/bottles in rooms is not allowed. Whether they are opened, closed, washed out, sealed, empty, or full is irrelevant.
